

Bangla Language Processing (BLP) Workshop Sponsorship Package

The first Bangla Language Processing (BLP) Workshop will be co-located with EMNLP on 6 - 10 December, 2023 in Singapore. The workshop provides a platform for meaningful interactions among thought leaders in academia, industry, and students, and serves as an opportunity to share insights and expertise, fostering collaborative learning and innovation in the field of Bangla language processing and beyond.

The BLP 2023 organizing committee would like to invite your organization to support the workshop. As a sponsor, you will enjoy the opportunities to interact closely and network with worldwide leaders and researchers in academia and industry, as well as outstanding students in the field. Your participation will enable you to demonstrate your innovative products and services, and increase your visibility within the worldwide speech and language community/industry.

Your support will also enable the organizers to provide an exciting program, assist student grants and enable better worldwide participation and networking. Standard sponsorship packages are available for your consideration below. We also welcome proposals for customized sponsorship arrangements.
